

AT THE CHATTANOOGA CAMP

NO ENTHUSIASM OVER GOING TO FLORIDA PROMOTIONS MADE RECRUITS ARRIVING.

(BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.)
Chattanooga, Tenn., June 16.—The report that a part of the army at Chickamauga will be moved to Florida, Fla., to go into camp there, was received with no great enthusiasm by the volunteers. They have heard the most wonderful stories of mosquitoes, sandflies and hot weather down at Tampa, and do not fancy the idea of stopping this side of Cuba. They are anxious for active service, but do not want to again go through the discomforts of establishing a big camp, as they did here.

Sickness is diminishing every day, and Chickamauga is perhaps the healthiest volunteer camp in the country. A more thoroughly organized Medical Department was found to be a necessity by General Brooks and Chief Surgeon Hartshuff, and Colonel Hartshuff has set to work to secure it.

General Boynton has information that a number of other regiments will be ordered to Chickamauga soon, and has staked out some suitable spots where wells can be sunk near their proposed encampments. The 4th Maryland will be among those to come.

NEW UNIFORMS FOR 14TH NEW-YORK.

The 14th New-York to-day reports only four cases of sickness in the entire regiment. They were yesterday supplied with new fatigue uniforms, and appeared in them at drill to-day for the first time. Almost every day there are some promotions in the different regiments, and hundreds of men are now watching the mails and telegraphic dispatches for the announcement of their advancement. Captain Gordon Voorhees, of the 1st Missouri, has received an appointment from Washington as assistant adjutant to General Wade. Miller R. Downing, of the same regiment, has been made commissary of subsistence. The two officers have been assigned to their posts by General Wade. General Wade to-day inspected the regiments in his command.

The most interesting sight now is to stand around the railroad depots and watch the recruits come in in small squads. They are arriving on every train. There were fifty-three recruits for Battery G, of the 1st Ohio Artillery, in one squad that arrived in the city this morning. There will be a trying trip ahead of the Ohio boys after the arrival of the full complement of recruits; they will be required to march to Rome, a distance of seventy miles, and return, executing regular battle maneuvers on the trip.

The work of drill and maneuvers will be carried on along the roads leading from Chickamauga to Rome, and through the difficult mountain passes, among the intricate windings and turnings of the armies of General Bragg and General Rosecrans found it so hard to keep themselves in condition to offer battle in the Civil War. The men will be subjected to this exercise for about seven days, when they will return to camp. This is being done to get them in shape for the mountain campaign in the eastern provinces of Cuba.

The entire cavalry troop in camp are preparing for a sham cavalry charge. The Grishy and Montana rough riders will probably be pitted against the 1st Ohio and the 1st Illinois Cavalry.

WELL-KNOWN MEN IN CAMP.

John Lind, the quartermaster of the 12th Minnesota, was yesterday nominated by the Democrats, Populists and silver Republicans for Governor of Minnesota. Mr. Lind received the news of his nomination while hard at work. He will not resign his present place for some time yet, if at all. Among the other prominent men from the West are the following, belonging to Grigley's cavalry: J. Stewart, who was an attorney at Pierre, N. D., and is a graduate of Harvard; Captain Nugent, of Troop H, a graduate of West Point, and the only West Point graduate in the regiment; and his two lieutenants, Stewart and Sunderhauf. The last two were also lawyers in North Dakota, and Lieutenant Sunderhauf has the reputation of being one of the best horsemen in the United States. They all left fine places to fight.

The "Midway," at Lytle, is now a quiet place. As soon as the operators of many "blind tiger" and gambling dens leave last night that General Boynton had communicated with Governor Atkinson regarding them, they all closed their front doors.

OFF FOR CHICKAMAUGA.

FIRST DETAIL OF MEN TO FILL UP THE RANKS OF THE EIGHTH REGIMENT.

One hundred men of the three hundred now being recruited in the city to bring up the 8th Regiment, at Chickamauga, to its full strength, left the army of the regiment, at Park-ave, and Ninety-fourth-st., about 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon and started on their journey to the camp. On Wednesday evening only sixty men had been recruited, leaving forty men needed, but sixty men of those recruited in the evening passed the physical examination. Of these forty were chosen to complete the first detail, and the remaining twenty were the first of the second detail.

There was a crowd of several hundred persons outside the army when the men started, and inside the army the number of persons, most of them women, who assembled to see the recruits off, was also very large. The first detail of the 8th Regiment, which was ordered to go to Chickamauga, was made up of men who had been recruited from the ranks of the 8th Regiment, and a few days. Most of those chosen will be taken from the ranks of the 8th Regiment, and a few days. Most of those chosen will be taken from the ranks of the 8th Regiment, and a few days.

Several of the women who had been in the army when the men started yesterday followed them downtown, and at the Liberty ferry there was another scene, and on the ferry, at 4:45 p. m., and the women crossed the river with the men, only to find them when the train started from Jersey City.

PRESIDENT CANNOT GO TO CAMP THOMAS. Chattanooga, Tenn., June 16 (Special).—President McKinley has declined the invitation of the Chamber of Commerce to review the troops on July 4. He says that pressing duties will prevent him from leaving Washington even for a short period of time.

RECRUITING THE ENGINEER CORPS.

AN UNUSUALLY HIGH CLASS OF APPLICANTS FOR PLACES IN THE FIRST REGIMENT.

At No. 22 Broadway, the temporary headquarters of the 1st Regiment of Volunteer Engineers, a busy scene was presented all day yesterday, when the work of examining and enlisting the men who have offered themselves as recruits for the regiment was being carried on. The officers of the regiment have been waiting for some time for the arrival of their commissions from Washington, and until these were received the regular recruiting could not be begun. In the mean time, nearly a thousand men had offered themselves at the headquarters of the regiment in this city. The commissions having been received, the work of selecting from these applicants the 36 men who will compose the New York battalion was begun yesterday. The men whose names have been taken have all been communicated with, and ordered to report at No. 22 Broadway in order to be examined. Those who are accepted will be sent to the Mills Hotel, in Brooklyn, and it is expected that by next Monday the regiment will be so far organized as to allow the men to be sent to the front.

THE PHYSICAL EXAMINATION OF THE MEN BEING RECRUITED.

The physical examination of the men is being conducted by Dr. Louis L. Seaman, who has been named as the surgeon of the regiment. All the officers of the organization are well pleased with the men who have been enrolled, saying that they are of a far higher class than those in the average volunteer regiments. Those who have some special knowledge of the various trades useful to an engineer corps receive the preference, and the officers are anxious to have men who are skilled in engineering or allied professions.

The character of the men who have applied for places in the regiment may be seen from the following list of a few of those who were examined yesterday: Eugene Mikulowicz, junior, of Plattsburgh, a civil engineer, and constructor and promoter of railroads in China; Richard J. Purcell, electrical engineer, of the New York Central Railroad Company; William Stoughton, civil engineer, member for three years of the Duke of Cornwall's Royal Volunteers in England; W. L. Edson, son of Thomas Edson, twenty-one years old, and an expert electrician; Gustav Ravenna, assistant to Professor of the United States Museum of Natural History, and formerly connected with the Royal Engineers of Italy; Ernest Barpe, formerly connected with the Swiss Engineering Company; John W. Fleming, a submarine diver, employed by the Merritt Weaving Company; William O'Brien, a machanic and formerly of the Danish Navy; Frank H. Woodward, a graduate of Harvard, engaged in geological work; Edward J. Edwards, N. Y. of the United States Survey in Colorado; Thomas H. Adrians, inspector of engineering, in the Department of Public Works; R. W. Stern, member of the American Society of Civil Engineers; R. H. Anderson, civil engineer, a graduate of Princeton University; F. H. Schmidt, formerly a member of the 4th German Landwehr; Kenneth Crawford, an artist and member of the 2nd Regiment of the Guard of Brooklyn; and C. C. Colquhoun, of the American Society of Civil Engineers.

THE BLUE AND THE GRAY.

REMARKABLE SCENE AT THE UNVEILING OF THE CONFEDERATE MONUMENT.

IN JACKSONVILLE.

Jacksonville, Fla., June 16.—The unveiling of the $20,000 Confederate monument here to-day marked a chapter in history strange in coincidence and remarkable in surroundings. Eighteen years ago on the plaza of one of the hotels of this city a soldier, ex-President, while the citizens of Jacksonville passed and repassed, marking the presence of a statesman who had made the laurels of a victor unending forever by proclaiming over a sea of bitterness: "Let us have peace!"

To-day his grandson, as a member of the staff of General Lee, stood within a few feet of the same spot reviewing an army of soldiers in blue, veterans who had opposed each other on the battlefields, and thousands of Floridians, marching to do honor to a Confederate soldier in bronze who viewed with the cold eyes of the past a living chapter of our current history.

A regimental band from the land of the old South stepped proudly to the strains of a march, and the American flag waved in the Southern breeze. The new Yankees from North Carolina and Virginia, clad in blue, took up the echo with the spirit-stirring refrain of "Dixie." Behind trooped the old Federal veterans, and then came the old Confederates under the Stars and Stripes, floating peacefully beside the Stars and Bars. A Federal army in the people of an extreme Southern State past the reviewing stand occupied by a Lee and a Grant, under the eyes of a Harrison, whose father was a Federal general and a Republican President, and of a nephew of the Vice-President, to unveil a monument dedicated by ex-Confederates to the Confederate who is dead except on the pages of history.

Through the streets of a Southern city tramped an army in blue, led by Lee, in whose name and fame is concentrated Southern history from the beginning. At the foot of a pedestal that lifts up the typical Southern soldier to the reverence of the ages, stood a Sartoris, who is a Grant to the people now, and a Harrison, at home with the people from whom his ancestors sprang. The South, and the West and the North marched through the streets—the boys in blue from Illinois, New-Jersey, Iowa, Wisconsin, Virginia and North Carolina, brothers all, save as they are rivals for the first place in the charge and the last in retreat when they face the enemies of their native land.
